A history of law in Europe: from the early middle ages to the twentieth century

Author: Antonio & Padoa-Schioppa
Year: 2017
Category: EU Law
Call Number: KJ147/P335 2017
Location: Legal Research Center
Summary: With its roots in ancient Greece, Roman law and Christianity, European legal history is the history of a common civilisation. The exchange of legislative models, doctrines and customs within Europe included English common law and has been extensive from the early middle ages to the present time. From the fifth to the twentieth century, Antonio Padoa-Schioppa explores how law was brought to life in the six main phases of European legal history. Translated in English for the first time, this new edition has been revised to include the recent developments of the European Union and the legal-historical works of the last decade.

Chinese law and legal theory

Author: Perry Keller
Year: 2001
Category: Chinese Law
Call Number: KNN440/C443 2001
Location: Legal Research Center
Summary: China's Confucian-based imperial legal system developed and flourished for more than 3000 years. Its disintegration, following the collapse of the last dynasty in 1911, ushered in a new century of legal experimentation, development and intermittent disorder. The articles included in this volume illustrate the very best of English language academic scholarship in this area. They represent a collective introduction to the law and legal theory of China and provide a perceptive and well informed guide to a huge subject area of enormous depth and complexity.
